Student Spotlight: Nicole Simons

RSBC vocal student and rising talent Nicole Simons of Hampton Bays, New York knows what it takes to succeed. She is an accomplished singer/songwriter, a Hampton Idol finalist, and an actress. Her recent theatrical credits include "The Crucible" and the upcoming musical "Once Upon a Mattress" in which Nicole stars as Princess Winifred. Here at RSBC we celebrate Nicole Simons in our Student Spotlight for her amazing singing talent, impeccable work ethic, and for being one of our most gifted vocal students.

RSBC: Do you have any musical role models?

Nicole: Hayley Williams and Christina Aguilera. They are both incredibly talented vocalists and they stay true to themselves and their music

RSBC: You are a talented songwriter. Have you recorded any original songs recently?

Nicole: I've recorded several originals including "Lion's Pride," "Nothing on You," and "Alone As I Am."

RSBC: Do you prefer the stage or the recording studio?

Nicole: I love the stage with a passion; it's like home to me. And when I'm in the studio, I feel so at ease and relaxed. You have to love both if you want to be a musician.

RSBC: What are your plans for the future?

Nicole: I am planning to attend college in the fall and study for my BFA in acting and hopefully move on to Broadway. I would also like to succeed with my music, if not as a solo artist then with my band. Maybe that will go somewhere. You never know.
